It is now announced that J. Pierpont Morgan has decided not to retire from business. He has probably heard that North Carolina is building some more good railroads.

Al Adams, the rich "policy king," was discharged from Sing Sing penitentiary the other day. It was found that his property had increased $1,000,000 in value during his imprisonment.

A Boston newspaper started a rumor that the Democrats are loaded down with a campaign fund of $11,000,000. Delaware's acceptance of Addicks' terms shows that there was nothing in the rumor.

A Kansas City woman is suing her husband for a divorce because he is "always growling at her." The dogged rascal will slip up if he does not set up as a defence that his wife was always whining around him.

Says the Raleigh Post: "'It seems that the Raleigh Post has an angel on its staff. It refers to a Post reporter on the wing who alights in Monnt Olive,' says the Wilmington STAR. The only thing left to grieve over is that the STAR has been so long in finding it out."

The salary of an elected congressman is by law $5,000; that of a defeated candidate for congress is by custom $2,000. There are more candidates for the $2,000 job in South Carolina this year than for the other.—Newberry S. C. Observer.

President Loree, of the Rock Island Railroad, who received a bonus of $500,000 and will draw a salary of $75,000 a year for four years yet to come, is a failure as a railroad manager. With "sugar on the hip" like that it would be a flying machine that most of us would like to manage, as the inclination to be "a high flyer" would make the job appropriate.

We take the following from the Raleigh Post: The Wilmington STAR flings in this filler: "A dispatch from Esopus a few days ago said: 'Senator Gorman is with Judge Parker.' What's the matter with us? We've been with Judge Parker from the very start." We would remind the esteemed STAR that there are so many of us—original Parker men that we've got no business feeling lonesome.

NEGRO IN THE WRONG PEW.

Case of Jno. H. Davis, Who Entered a Third Street Residence and Took a Seat Among Wedding Guests.

In the municipal court yesterday the Mayor tried the negro John H. Davis, who attempted to force the "social equality" issue upon a party of young people who had gathered at the home of Mr. J. L. Russ, No. 813 North Third street, upon the occasion of a wedding reception to Mr. J. L. Lennon and bride, who had just arrived from Bolton, N. C. The negro is rather old but is of the big, black type, and was evidently under the influence of liquor. He came first on the piazza and knocked but before any one could answer the summons, he pushed open the door, walked into the parlor where a number of ladies and gentlemen were seated and was about to take a chair when Mr. Dan Gibson and Mr. J. P. Russ, a son of the owner of the house, took hold of him and hustled him out. The negro protested, saying that it was his house that he was in and he wouldn't be thrown out. But the young men at the reception stood not on the protestations of the man with Booker Washington ambitions, and when Policeman E. Skipper arrived they had the intruder on his back in the front yard. The Mayor in court yesterday gave him a straight sentence of 30 days on the roads.

The Mayor also investigated yesterday an affray in which deadly weapons were used by a drayman, Elliott Somers, and a hack driver, Fred Bryant, at the S. A. L. depot Thursday at noon. They fell out over some baggage for transfer that some colored female passengers had. Somers made at Bryant with a dray iron and Bryant, it is alleged, was after Somers with metal knucks. Brooke Empie, Esq., appeared for Bryant. Each gave $25 bond for his appearance at next week's term of Superior Court.

"Son" Herring, who had just been returned from serving a 30-day sentence on the roads for vagrancy, was given a preliminary trial on the charge of stealing a coat from Jas. Adams, colored. In default of $50 bond for Superior Court he went to jail.

TRIAL PROGRESSED SLOWLY.

Night Sessions of Court at Elizabethtown to Complete Trial of Brown and Sellers—Witnesses Tell of Tracks and Other Evidences, Etc.

After another entire day consumed in the hearing of witnesses for the prosecution in the trial of the Clarkton rapists in Bladen Superior Court yesterday, the State rested its case at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and a recess was taken until 7:20 P. M. At the night session, the appointed counsel for the prisoners demurred to the evidence, contending that the State had not made out its case. The demurrer was overruled and attorneys for the negroes announced that they would introduce no evidence, thereby securing the opening and closing argument to the jury. R. H. Lyon, Esq., then spoke for fifty minutes in an earnest appeal for the defendants. Solicitor Lyon followed in a powerful argument for the conviction of the accused. At 9 o'clock court took a recess until 9:30 this morning, when R. S. White, Esq., of Elizabethtown, will speak for the prosecution, and Maj. J. D. Kerr, of Clinton, for the negroes. Judge Ward's charge will follow and a verdict is expected sometime early this afternoon.

[Special Star Telegram.]

ELIZABETHTOWN, N. C., Oct. 14.—The trial of Sellers and Brown, the Clarkton rapists, was resumed this morning. The crowd was smaller than yesterday and no excitement prevailed. The jail was guarded as usual last night by deputy sheriffs, but there were no incidents. Civil Engineer J. N. Kelly was put on the stand by the State this morning. The maps tendered yesterday were introduced without objection by the defence. Mr. Kelly gave in detail a description of the scene and vicinity of the crime and tracks. This evidence intends to show that the prisoners had an opportunity to commit the crime without being seen, the view being cut off by the swamp and woods from any road or dwelling. The witness saw one fresh track at the water hole near the shanty. A number eight shoe pointed towards the Packer house. No material facts were developed on the cross examination. The witness was on the stand one hour.

Sam Russ was the next witness. He is a cousin of Mrs. Packer and is 17 years old. He stayed there from Monday before the day of the murder and left that day about 9 o'clock. He saw a woman on the railroad coming towards home; saw Brown at the water hole; went a mile, dug potatoes, staying there forty-five minutes. It took him twenty-one minutes to walk the distance and the same time to return. When he got back and failed to find Mrs. Packer, he went to Brown at the water hole and found him hanging out clothes. He inquired of him if he had seen a white woman. He said he had not. Then witness went to John Packer's, over half a mile, returned and went to Brown again, who did not offer to help in the search. The train went down while he was on his way to John Packer's. He saw a pie pan on the floor in the kitchen. Mrs. Packer was fixing to cook some apple pies when he left. Two pies were cooked when he returned, but no other food was prepared. Friday night, September 2d, he was sleeping by a window. About 2 o'clock some one woke him and asked for matches. He gave them to him through the window but did not know who it was. On Wednesday before, about dark, some one had come for matches and he did not know him either. Cross-examined, Russ said Mrs. Packer was cooking apples and sifting flour when he left Saturday morning. On his return he found an overturned pie pan on the floor and a pie on the floor two feet from the pan. Another pie was in the safe. The fire was still burning in the stove.

Mary Wooten, colored, was next introduced. She was going down the tram road by where the prisoners were, September 3d, between 8 and 9 o'clock, and saw a white boy cross the road at the old shop. She met the prisoners near the shop. Sellers asked her if she knew where his wife's mother was, and she told him at Clarkton; said he would see her if he got there in time; said they were going home. She saw two doors open and a window up at the Packer house; said Sellers was barefooted. Brown had on shoes; talked to them about ten minutes; had watch. She stopped down the tram road before she got to the prisoners and talked with hands at work. She could not see the water tank from there on account of a curve in the tram road.

Mr. O. L. Clark, of Clarkton, was introduced. He saw tracks at the scene and weeds broken down near the kitchen. There were small barefoot tracks and tracks made by a new number eight shoe. The heels of the barefoot were deeply indented in the grounds. He saw Brown about 1:30 P. M., and he had on number 7, old shoes. He saw Sellers at 11 that night at Council's. Witness examined shoes which were near number eight. He carried Sellers to Clarkton and had conversation with him. He stated that he and Brown had considered going to Elkton to take the train, but finally concluded to go to Clarkton. They went up the track a part of the way on one side and part of the way on the other. They went to the post office then near to witness's store; bought a watermelon from a cart at the depot and then went to the ticket office and then up the road to the cotton platform. They took the train at the upper edge of the depot. Mr. Clark saw the clothes at the shanty on September 3rd. The top shirt was wet and there was a red spot of blood on the cuff. Brown said the shirt was his; said Sellers was with thim at the shanty that morning. He saw one track at the well the same size as on the field. It pointed toward the Packer house. If the person had gone in any other direction he would have stepped in soft red mud. This witness was not cross examined.

Neill Singletary was examined. He knows Sellers, and saw the tracks. He secured Sellers' shoes on the morning of the 4th. He measured them to the tracks in the field and they fitted perfectly in a dozen places. He sold Sellers a pair of shoes Saturday before the crime. There was nothing material in the cross examination.

J. W. Clark went to the scene and found a knife five feet from the body. The blade slipped by the back spring and opened on the back. There were beggar-lice weeds between the body and the railroad. An iron-handled knife with two blades was introduced.

Oscar Pridgen, colored, was examined. He knows Brown and Sellers and and was with Thursday night before the murder. Had played with them and each had a knife. Brown had an iron-handled knife. Sellers had a horn-handled knife. He could not identify the knife, however, and did not know whether it had one or two blades. Nothing new was brought out on cross-examination.

S. G. Wooten saw tracks at the water hole; some were made by old shoes and one by new ones. E. J. Cox went with Nance to look for a lost mule. He met Matt Kelly about one-fourth of a mile from the Packer home. He went beyond Packer's house and found the mule and drove the animal into Packer's lot at 11:10. He saw Sam Russ in the house. In the afternoon he asked Brown if he saw him down there. Brown said that he did; that he was sitting on the railroad with Sellers. He got back to Clarkton at fifteen minutes before the train went down.

Matt Kelley, colored, says he went to Elkton, three miles from Clarkton. He passed the Packer house between 8 and 9; saw two men—one yellow and one black—standing in front of the Packer house looking into the open doors and windows. When he came back he saw Russ at the railroad, near the shop, going toward the Packer house. He got to Clarkton before the train passed. The old man stuck to the story on cross examination.

O. L. Clark was recalled. He said when he got Sellers at Council's his clothes were full of beggar-lice. He had on a dark overshirt and a clean undershirt. He saw a small fresh cut on Sellers face like a finger nail cut.

Anna Prigden, colored, saw Sellers Wednesday night before the murder at her house. She washes for him. He put on a pair of slips and a thin undershirt.

J. D. Burney, foreman of the Cape Fear Lumber Company, was next examined. He was taking up track five hundred yards from the scene. Sellers and Brown worked until Friday night. They had told him Monday that they were going home Saturday. Saw them Saturday morning at the water tank at 8:30. They went back to the shop. Brown returned at 12 on the day of the murder and offered to go to work.

T. L. Smith, of Maxton, owner of the bloodhounds, was introduced, but his evidence was excluded.

A. Santee was introduced, but his recollection of the time was different. However he heard hallos over towards Packer house.

Neill Singletary was recalled. He says he saw two fresh scars on Sellers' face.

J. D. Burney, recalled, said Sellers told him when he knocked off Friday night that he was going home that night. There was a night train. At 5 o'clock the State rested and court took a recess till 7:30 to-night.

The Night Session.

The court was called to order promptly at 7:30. The defence demurred to the State's evidence but did not introduce evidence and have the opening and closing. R. H. Lyon addressed the jury first and argued that the state had failed to make out a case. Mr. Lyon spoke fifty minutes and made an earnest appeal to the jury. Sellers and Brown anxiously listened to their counsel. Solicitor Lyon next addressed the jury and made a most powerful argument for the conviction of the accused. The court adjourned at 9 o'clock to 9:30 in the morning, when the solicitor will conclude. R. S. White will then speak and J. D. Kerr will close for the defence.

BANISHED FROM CITY

Frank Lewis, Who Cut His Own Child, Must Depart for Other Climes.

BEFORE MAYOR YESTERDAY.

Wife and Daughter, Trained in Story She Must Tell, Said Cutting Was All an Accident—Brute's Weak Attempt to Excite Sympathy.

Frank Lewis, the beast of a man who, in a drunken frenzy Thursday night, threatened to exterminate his entire family and cowardly began a fulfillment of the threat upon his little infant daughter by cutting her in the temple with a knife, was arraigned before the Mayor yesterday, a cringing, cowardly brute. And worst of it all, the mother of that innocent child and the wife of that inhuman father, came into court and testified for her consort in vice as well as in matrimony, saying that the cutting of the child was all an accident; that Lewis was drunk and while engaged in chipping some tobacco for his pipe, the child fell against the knife and in that way was injured—a statement that bristled at every pause with untruth. Then to add still further infamy to the story, a twelve year-old daughter of the couple went upon the stand, apparently very well trained by the mother, and corroborated what the woman had said. All the while this man Lewis, depravity written on every feature, sat in the box in a disgusting effort to play upon the sympathy of the Mayor and the crowd by fondling the injured child in his arms and caressing it. But the sympathy was not forthcoming and the contempt for the fellow was increased.

The Mayor was impetuous and could hardly retain himself within the bounds of judicial bearing. He listened to the story of the woman; then to that of the girl so carefully trained in the story she was to tell to shield the inhuman father. Both were motioned aside with contempt and the Mayor turned upon the man in the box; the woman was told to take the child and then followed an arraignment so severe that it will be days and months before he will forget it. Of course, there was no evidence when the woman shifted her story so completely from that told the police when she was in fear of her life at the hands of her husband, whom she wanted arrested, and the Mayor could do nothing. He ordered the man to get out of the box and to leave the court room at once as he didn't want him in sight any longer. And furthermore, added the Mayor: "You and your people get out of this town as quick as you can; if you haven't got the money, come to me and I'll furnish you with quick transportation to some other point. We don't want you here." The man and his wife started to go, but the Mayor thought of the innocent child and told the woman to take it into Dr. Harper's office and let him examine the wound in the baby's head, incase it needed attention. The woman did so and Dr. Harper found that the cut was only slight. But the brute who inflicted the wound deserves no credit that it was not fatal even. He has until Tuesday of next week to leave the city. He and his wife came here from Fayetteville under circumstances related in yesterday's paper. They left that town for the town's good and to escape prosecution for running a blind tiger. They have been living here on the charity of the people several weeks. It is said that he has cancer of the hip, but there are many who contend that he should go straight to the roads for a long time.

Last night it was reported that he was begging liquor near his home. The day before his arrest he is said to have taken a flannel garment that had been begged by the mother for the sick child and sold it to get money to buy liquor.

Seaboard Improvements.

The Seaboard Air Line is building at the Wilmington Compress a large platform, 300 feet long, to be used in unloading cotton from cars. It will prove a great convenience in the handling of cotton. A coal chute is also being built near the plant of the North Carolina Cotton Oil Company.

MR. PARKER'S COMMENT

"The governmental expenditure last year mounted up to five hundred and eighty-two millions, which is not equalled by any year since the civil war, with the exception of the year of the Spanish war. Instead of a surplus in the annual receipts of about eight millions, which the present executive found on assuming control, there is now a deficit to be found of forty-two millions. There is an inevitable result to such extravagance."—Judge Parker's speech to the democratic editors.

MR. ROOSEVELT'S ORDER

"By direction of the President, officials will neither discuss nor give out any information regarding the annual estimates until further orders."—Order issued yesterday by President Roosevelt to heads of departments at Washington.

"HAPPY HOOLIGAN" A PUZZLE.

His Youth a Bar to Punishment for Most Extraordinary Theft This Week.

The precocious colored youngster known to the street only as "Happy Hooligan," was arraigned in Justice Fowler's court yesterday charged with the larceny of a small amount of change from the leading lady in "For Her Children's Sake," a theatrical company which appeared here this week. The exploits of "Happy" on that fateful night when he fell into the hands of the house officer within half an hour after the theft was committed, are well known to readers of this paper. The money was recovered by Constable Savage and Stage Manager J. D. Mote and returned to the lady with the exception of 25 cents which he paid for admission to the gallery of the theatre a few minutes after the theft. As the lad has not reached the age of discretion as contemplated in the law, Justice Fowler was puzzled to know what to do with the boy. Justice Fowler decided to hold the boy until the arrival of Solicitor Duffy next week. He will then confer with the solicitor and determine what disposition to make of the boy. He calmly admits his guilt and has no apologies for his conduct.

Jolly Britisher Going.

The British steamer "Tolosa," Capt. Chas. H. Holtum, cleared yesterday afternoon for Liverpool with an even ten thousand bales of cotton, consigned by Messrs. Alexander Sprunt & Sons. Capt. Holtum, who is a social favorite in Wilmington, desires to say "good bye" to his hundreds of friends here as the time allotted him before departure will not permit of his saying "au revoir" to each one personally. Capt. Holtum expects to pass down the river about 01 o'clock this morning.

Cargo of Veneering Timber.

Mr. Will L. Miller, manager for the Acme Tea Chest Co., of Glasgow, Scotland, is advised that the British steamer "Armenis," 1,515 tons, Captain Scearf, is now discharging cargo at Jacksonville, Fla., and expects to clear from that port Sunday for Wilmington to receive a cargo of gum logs and veneering timber here. Mr. Miller has the cargo ready and will make a quick shipment. The "Armenis" was here last season for a similar cargo, and Captain Scearf, her master, is well remembered.

HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPALS.

Mr. Hamilton Meets New Students and Prof. Connor Says "Good-bye."

Mr. J. G. deRoulhac Hamilton, the newly elected principal of the Wilmington High School, was formally inducted into his new office yesterday by Superintendent Blair. Mr. Hamilton was introduced to the student body in the assembly room of the building and he spoke to the pupils briefly, expressing delight at being with them and saying that he was most favorably impressed with the school. Prof. R. D. W. Connor, the retiring principal, made a few brief remarks, bidding the students adieu and commending their new instructor in the most complimentary terms. Supt. Blair followed Prof. Connor, expressing in behalf of himself and the High School the greatest regret at the departure of Mr. Connor. Many of the High School students took occasion to say "good-bye" personally to Prof. Connor and to assure him of their highest regard.

Mr. Hamilton spent the remainder of the day in company with Supt. Blair and Mr. Samuel Northrop, chairman of the district committee, in acquainting himself with the machinery of the High School and visiting the grammar schools of the city. He has made a most favorable impression upon the pupils of the school and the people generally. THE ELECTORAL VOTE.

It is just a little over three weeks till the day for the national election, and the closing weeks of the campaign find the Democrats making a red-hot campaign in the doubtful States. The leaders of the party are full of hope over the prospects, and we fail to see a sign of pessimism anywhere. Even in Nebraska Judge Parker has a fighting chance, Col. Bryan having denied several days ago that he had made a statement to the effect that there was no chance for the Democrats to carry that State.

As the election is so close, a glimpse at the electoral vote will be interesting at this time. There are 476 votes in the electoral college, 239 being necessary to elect a President and Vice President. The 476 votes are distributed among the States as follows:

Alabama	11	Nevada	3
Arkansas	9	New Hampshire	4
California	10	New Jersey	10
Colorado	5	New York	39
Connecticut	7	North Carolina	12
Delaware	3	North Dakota	4
Florida	5	Ohio	23
Georgia	13	Oregon	4
Idaho	3	Pennsylvania	34
Illinois	27	Rhode Island	4
Indiana	15	South Carolina	9
Iowa	13	South Dakota	4
Kansas	10	Tennessee	12
Kentucky	13	Texas	18
Louisiana	9	Utah	3
Maine	6	Vermont	4
Maryland	8	Virginia	12
Massachusetts	15	Washington	5
Michigan	14	West Virginia	7
Minnesota	11	Wisconsin	13
Mississippi	10	Wyoming	3
Missouri	18
Montana	3	Total	476
Nebraska	8

There are thirteen doubtful States, or rather, which conservative politicians so designate.

The following is a list of States States which are sure to go for Roosevelt and Parker respectively:

PARKER.		ROOSEVELT.
Alabama	11	California	10
Arkansas	9	Illinois	27
Florida	5	Iowa	13
Georgia	13	Kansas	10
Kentucky	13	Maine	6
Louisiana	9	Massachusetts	16
Mississippi	10	Michigan	14
Missouri	18	Minnesota	11
North Carolina	12	Nebraska	8
South Carolina	9	New Hampshire	4
Tennessee	12	North Dakota	4
Texas	18	Ohio	23
Virginia	12	Oregon	4
		Pennsylvania	34
Total	151	Rhode Island	4
		South Dakota	4
		Vermont	4
		Washington	5
		Wyoming	3
		Total	204

That leaves the following States more or less in doubt.

Colorado	5	New Jersey	10
Connecticut	7	New York	39
Delaware	3	Utah	3
Idaho	3	West Virginia	7
Indiana	15	Wisconsin	13
Maryland	8
Montana	3	Total	101
Nevada	3

You can do your own figuring from this statement.

The Democrats are confident of carrying New York, Maryland and West Virginia, which will run Parker's vote up to 205, leaving him still short 34 votes. The Republicans on the other hand claim that they are sure of 217 votes, exclusive of New York.

Figuratively speaking, the movement on foot now is to do away with wedding bells and clank chains as the emblem of the indissolubility of the marriage tie. It would be a good idea for a couple to go away from the altar under the conviction that they are chained together for better or for worse.

Testimony of a Minister.

Rev. Jno. S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes: "For twelve years I suffered from yellow jaundice. I consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters, and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It is guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Only 50c. †

COL. BRYAN'S GOOD WORK.

The Hon. William J. Bryan is doing some effective work for Judge Parker's cause in Indiana. If any evidence were needed that the eloquent Nebraskan is still a power in the land, it is furnished by the enthusiasm with which he is being greeted everywhere in his campaigning itinerary in the Hoosier State. More than that can be said, however, for the tremendous crowds which are turning out to hear Col. Bryan's speeches, show what a hold he has on the people. He is making speeches of great force and effectiveness, and has impressed the country with his sincerity and earnestness in supporting and working for Judge Parker.

Col. Brayn's speeches are attracting wider notice than those of any other speaker in the campaign. What he says goes home like a solid shot and if Judge Parker carries Indiana he will have the Nebraska statesman to thank for it. Democrats everywhere are elated over the tremendous effect of Col. Bryan's speeches.

CURRENT COMMENT.

——Admiral Schley has registered as a voter in Maryland, but there is a suspicion that his commander-in-chief will not profit by it.—Washington Post.

—— Columbia and Panama are both agitated. Well, perhaps that climate is no worse for our soldiers than that of the Phillippines.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

—— Some Southerners there is no suiting. In South Carolina forty-four years ago everybody was objecting to the Republican party because it had elected Lincoln. Now Senator Tillman, in his last speech, objects to the Republican party because it is "no longer the party of Lincoln."—Philadelphia (Rep.) Press.

—— A dispatch from London October 10th, says: After a stormy meeting to day the shareholders of the British South Africa Company authorized the issue of $5,000,000 new capital. Previous to the close of the meeting, which broke up in confusion, the chairman, the Duke of Abecorn, was unable to secure a hearing and left the hall. The directors, except Earl Grey, were re-elected. The Earl sent a letter resigning his position because of his appointment as Governor General of Canada. He warned the shareholders that the greatest peril in South Africa was the "drifting policy" in regard to the natives. For a solution of the native question, he said, a conference should be held of the best and most humane scientists of Great Britain and America to advise on the policy which should be adopted with the object of civilizing the Kaffirs.

— The Republican committee in Cumberland has issued scandalous sheets at Fayetteville and the Observer characterizes it as too indecent to reproduce. It has acted as a boomerang. Several leading Republicans openly denounce it. The editor of the scandalous sheet, a non-voter, has lately returned from editing a small paper in Alabama. A few more similar acts and the Democratic majority may exceed all expectations.

Why It Succeeds.

Because It's for One Thing Only, and Wilmington is Learning This.

Nothing can be good for everything.

Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only.

They're for sick kidney ill.

Here is evidence to prove it.

E. Poezolt, merchant tailor, of Eighth South Front street, residing at 315 North Sixth street, says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and in her case they proved to be an effective remedy. She suffered with her ankles and could scarcely get down stairs in the morning. We thought it was rheumatism and her ankles would be all puffed up every morning so she could hardly hobble around. Since obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at R. R. Bellamy's drug store, and taking them, she seems like another person. She is better in the morning, the swelling left her ankle and from the great relief she obtained we are only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—After early steadiness the cotton market to day weakened under liquidation and bear pressure following disappointing reports from the Southern spot markets, and at the close was barely steady with prices back to about last night's closing level. The market opened steady at an advance of two to four points on moderate covering. This was a little better than due on the cables. But frost is reported from Denver and this seemed to render smaller shorts cautious about staying in the market over Sunday, and following the call prices worked up about eight to ten points net higher. Advices from the South as to the spot situation showed easiness and prices here sold off quite sharply from the best with January going down from 10.14 to 10c. New Orleans, which had ruled steady during the morning, turned easier, sending selling orders to the local market, and there seemed to be considerable pressure from bearish sources while it was said that recently acquired lines of long cotton were being liquidated. Toward the close the market recovered four to five points from the lowest, but was finally barely steady at a decline of two points to an advance of one point. Sales were estimated at 300,000 bales.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Cotton was steady at 10.35c, net receipts — bales; gross receipts 1,042 bales; stock — bales.

Paracamph
to the Injured

1,000,000 Bottles Free

to sufferers from any of the many forms of

Rheumatism,	Eczema-Tetter,	Asthma,
Neuralgia,	Catarrh,	Throat Trouble,
Sore Joints,	Sore Throat,	Piles,
Sore Feet,	Hay Fever,	Itching or Bleeding,
Sunburn	Insect Stings	Mosquito Bites

Burns, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores or any disease that begins with Fever, Swelling or Inflammation.

Paracamph will give instant relief and effect a cure or put you on the road to recovery, no matter of how long standing or how severe your case may be. Remember, Paracamph is the "First Aid to the Injured" and is for external application, except in case of Sore Throat, and takes the place of many irritating, and often poisonous, internal remedies which are frequently taken to relieve the troubles enumerated above. Paracamph is a combination of refined camphor, and soothing, healing antiseptic oils and is a prescription endorsed by prominent surgeons and doctors now in hospitals and private practice all over this country; it is a safe and effectual treatment for all forms of Congestion, Soreness, Swelling and Inflammation, and when applied to cuts and burns relieves instantly, heals without leaving a scar and always prevents blood poisoning. It cures in a thoroughly natural way and does not affect the nervous system or upset the stomach, and when applied goes through the pores of the skin directly to the seat of the trouble, stops the pain, relieves the congestion by stimulating the circulation and draws out all Soreness, Fever and Inflammation by inducing sweating.

Paracamph is a preparation for the people, and a bottle or more of it should be in every home. As a family remedy nothing can equal it. Papa may have sore feet, hands or back; mamma may have Neuralgia; the boy cuts, burns or black eyes; the sister toothache or bad complexion, and the baby Fever, Sore Throat or a swelling. In every case Paracamph will do the work we claim, if directions are followed.

WINTER'S APPROACH

A day of sunshine now and then, but these frosty mornings admonish us that sable Winter is almost here. That suggests the comforts and satisfaction of one of our modern heaters. We have them this year of every shape and kind—just the one to suit. Or, perhaps, it's a cooking stove or range. We have those too, And the point we are making for them all is that they furnish an even maximum of heat with the greatest economy of fuel.

We are yours just now for stoves and ranges, but all the time for hardware and agricultural implements. Let us serve you.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Republican prosperity is of such a variety as to cause the rich to laugh, the poor to howl and the devil to dance.—Newbern, (N. C.) Hornett.

—Lumberton Argus: There is less interest in politics in the South than ever known at this season, we believe. The Democratic party is so sure of success in the State and can do so little to alter the national situation that the people are rather indifferent spectators of the campaign. A North Carolinian, by taking thought, can add not a cubit to the stature of Judge Parker's prospects. We simply await the result.

— Lumberton Robesonian: A white man by the name of Lovin was run over by the Carolina Northern train Friday and instantly killed. His body was crushed and ground to a shapeless mass. For some time past he has held a position as section foreman on the Carolina Northern railroad. The remains was taken to his home at Lillesville.

— Fayetteville Observer: The depot of the Aberdeen & Rockfish railroad at Hope Mills is nearing completion. As we stated before, the regular passenger schedule on this road went into effect Monday. Would it not be a good idea for our people to take some steps in the direction of getting the trains on this road to run over the A. C. L. to Fayetteville, a distance of only six miles?

— Raleigh News and Observer, Oct. 9: Justice Robert M. Douglas was showing to friends last night a most interesting historical relic in the shape of a check which was drawn by his father, the great Stephen A. Douglas, in favor of his no less famous opponent, Abraham Lincoln. The check reads: "$167. Pay to Hon. A. Lincoln or order one hundred and sixty-seven dollars and charge same to my account. To Messrs. Corcoran & Riggs. Washington, D. C., Dec. 21, 1857. (Signed) Stephen A. Douglas." The check, which is written on a small scrap of blue paper, is endoorsed on the back "A. Lincoln." Justice Douglas is sending the check to St. Louis for exhibition in the Lincoln-Douglas exhibit.

— The marriage of Mr. Cullen Langston, formerly of Wayne county, but now residing in Virginia, and Miss Minnie Pike, who lives near Pikeville, was announced to take place at Pikeville Tuesday afternoon, immediately on arrival of the train from the North, which was supposed to bring the groom. Immediately after dinner yesterday a large crowd of young folks, friends of the contracting parties, assembled at the home of the bride-elect and together they drove to town to meet the young man and show their respects, and later offer their congratulations. When the train pulled in the expectant throng stood and watched with eager eyes as each passenger filed out of the car, but the expected groom failed to put in his appearance. The crowd all dispersed and returned home, badly disappointed. Some parties also met at the next train from the North, but the groom still failed to show up. The young girl, of course, is heartbroken, and cannot account for the young man's non-appearance.

— Norfolk Landmark: Gen. Matthew W. Ransom, North Carolina's "Grand Old Man," is dead. He passed away as many men wish to pass away—suddenly, and without any previous period of long suffering or weakening mentality. Only a few months ago he made a speech which aroused his auditors to entousiasm. His retirement from public life was not painful to him, as he could not have remained in the Senate without sacrificing his convictions (in which time has proved him right), and as he went from public service to the active management of one of the finest farms in this part of the United States. His life was an admirable one, and must have been thoroughly enjoyable. Its basis was steady and intelligent work. Had Senator Ransom retired to a life of idleness or "rest" when he went back to his farm seven years ago, his latter years would probably have been very weary. Do not stop work unless you have to stop. It is the great tonic of normal mortal existence.

— Charlotte Chronicle: The day will never come when cotton will not be the staple crop of Edgecombe county, but the progressive farmers of that county have taken many forward steps in recent years in diversifying their crops. Mr. E. L. Daughteridge has found grass and stock to pay as well as cotton, to require less labor, and to make farm life more attractive to his sons. Mr. Dawson, Mr. Thigpen and others of Conetoe, have made good money raising early vegetables for market. The Tarboro Southerner says that Mr. J. W. B. Battle will set out two peach orchards at the Battle Bryan place, putting out trees of the most approved Georgia variety, and will grow peaches for market. The Georgia farmers have made big money growing peaches for the Northern market. So has Mr. Van Lindley and others at Southern Pines, in this State. The coarse sandy lands of Edgecombe and other eastern counties are well suited to growing fine peaches, they have fine transportation facilities, and there is a fine prospect for success in this field. The growing scarcity of labor makes fruit and grass and cattle products a future source of resource to North Carolina farmers.

Saves Two from Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y.; "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and to-day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infallible for Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

—Charlotte Chronicle: A movement has been started at Pineville to establish a bank. The institution, it is said will have a capital stock of $20,000, a majority of which has been subscribed. Pineville is one of the four Mecklenburg towns—the other three being Davidson, Huntersville and Matthews—that in population and volume of business, cut a much larger figure than many of the county seats of the State. But then they are suburban to the metropolis of North Carolina. Private banking is done in all of them, but there ought to be a Bank of Pineville, a Bank of Davidson, a Bank of Huntersville and a Bank of Matthews. There are cotton mills at three of the four towns named.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 15.

COTTON PRODUCTION SOUTH.

Statement of President Poole at the Convention of Commissioners of Agriculture at Baton Rouge.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BATON ROUGE, LA., Oct. 14.—The Cotton States Association of Commissioners of Agriculture, composed of members from Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Indian Territory, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, North Carolina, South Carolina, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia, in annual convention here to-day, listened to the address of President R. R. Poole, of Alabama. The commissioners estimate of this year's cotton crop is awaited with much interest.

President Poole said: "The value of the product which we have come to talk about to-day and devise ways and means to extend and promote its planting and cultivation, with a yield of ten million and a half bales, reaches the enormous sum of $410,408,659; besides the Sea Island crop of 78,688 bales, representing $5,954,707; the immense and astounding total of $418,358,366."

Mr. Poole then told of the demand for cotton, saying the supply is not equal to the demand. Continuing, he said:

"The planter is now independent at last, and he can make cotton the money crop, and after raising all provision crops for home consumption and to spare, he can make as much cotton as he chooses and hold it for fair and just prices."

He read the following from Professor Soule, of the Tennesse agricultural experiment station:

"The farmers of the South have an opportunity within their grasp that means everything to them. The British mill owners have but a vague idea of the great territory available for cotton production in the South."

Speaking of the price of cotton this year, President Poole said: "The prices have been fair from the beginning and the crop will be marketed at the present rate, ten cents, or over."

He says despite the boll weevil in Texas, where it was feared the production of the staple would be well nigh stopped or retarded to a ruinous extent, the yield will be larger than last year.

He closed his address with the plea for new men with brain and brawn to settle in the South.

The convention elected the following officers: President, G. W. Koiner, Richmond, Va.; First Vice President, P. T. Bradford, Little Rock, Ark.; Second Vice President, W. W. Ogilvie, Nashville, Tenn.; Secretary, B. W. Kilgore, Raleigh, N. C.; Treasurer, B. E. McLin, Tallahassee, Fla.; Executive Committee, G. W. Koiner, Richmond; J. G. Lee, Baton Rouge, and O. B. Stevens, Atlanta, Ga.

Richmond was chosen for the next meeting place. No cotton estimate was made.

TAMMANY HALL IS AROUSED.

Will Take Definite Action to Thwart the Efforts of the Republican Machine to Steal the Election in New York.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Voicing the objection of Tammany Hall to the challenging of Democratic voters in this city by State Superintendent of Elections Morgan, Charles E. Murphy says to-night:

"Make insistent our right to honesty in registration, voting and counting. I, as the representative of the executive committee in this county, have called that committee to meet at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning in conjunction with the Law committee, so that definite action may be taken for the protection of all voters, whether Democratic, Republican, Prohibitionist, Socialist or Populist.

"Never before in the history of Tammany has it been necessary to call such a meeting, but it has become absolutely necessary to take drastic measures to protect the franchise and the rights of all voters and that will be done. We will station competent watchmen in the polling places and see that every man is accorded his legal rights. We are resolute in our determination to secure an absolutely fair election and to thwart the desperate efforts of the "Republican State machine to steal this election, no matter how efficient and cunning they have been at that business in the past."

Governor Odell, who is also chairman of the Republican State committee, was asked about the matter, said he had between 6,000 and 7,000 people at the polls and registration booths. This would be an average of about seven men in each registration place.

The governor said that challenge lists have been made up and were being followed carefully, to see that none on the lists were allowed to register unchallenged.

FIERCE FIGHTING STILL GOING ON.

Field Marshal Oyama Reports That Japanese Are Making Satisfactory Progress.

LOSSES OF BOTH ENORMOUS.

The Result Yet Hangs in the Balance. Official Reports of the Fighting on Wednesday and Thursday—Depression in St. Petersburg.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MUKDEN, Oct. 14—At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon the fight is still in progress with terrible bitterness and the result yet hangs in the balance. The losses on both sides are enormous, The Russians have 15,000 wounded, hundreds of whom are streaming back from all directions.

TOKIO, Oct. 14, 1 P. M.—Field Marshal Oyama reports that fighting is in progress along almost the entire front, and that the Japanese are making satisfactory progress.

Japs' Official Report.

TOKIO, Oct. 14, 1:30 P. M.—An extended report from the Manchurian headquarters reached Tokio during the night and was published this afternoon. It records severe fighting yesterday and additional Japanese gains.

The contest around Bensihu continues to be undetermined.

Yesterday a force of Japanese cavalry, commanded by Prince Kanin, made a detour of the Russian left flank in the rear of Bensihu and partially scattered the Russian supports.

The report is as follows: "Several attacks of the enemy made in the direction of Bensihu have been repulsed. The enemy showed signs of retreat at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

"Our force in this direction began the attack early this morning, but the latest stages of the operation have not been reported.

"A large cavalry force, commanded by Prince Kanin, made a detour of the enemy's left flank in the rear of Bensihu and put the enemy's supports in great confusion, thereby helping our movement in this direction. Kanin's cavalry will again advance toward the rear of the enemy.

"The right column of the right army is now attacking the enemy at Chaohsienlen. The center column of the same army occupied the surrounding heights of Lienhu and Maern mountains. The left column is now attacking a remnant of the enemy's force on a height north of Shaotakou.

"The attack movement of the right army, owing to topographical difficulties is not proceeding as desired.

"The right column of the center army commenced its attack movement at 10 o'clock in the morning against a height north of Fuchikuchiaizu. At 2 o'clock the enemy's artillery began retreating. The right column of the left army occupied Panchiapo on the morning of the 13th. Its advanced force has already reached Pachiaizu. This column has been reinforced from the supports now attacking a division of Russians in the rear of Huanghuatien, but the state of the fighting is uncertain.

"Several batteries of Russian artillery posted at Chienhuangchitien made a stubborn resistance and part of our supports attacked them with artillery. The attack is proceeding satisfactorily.

"The pursuing force of the center column of the left army occupied Liensanchiaizu and is now pursuing the enemy toward Kodutun.

"The right wing of the left column is now attacking the enemy at Fungliupo."

Russian Account.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 14.—The Emperor has received the following dispatch, dated yesterday, from General Kuropatkin:

"Two regiments of the Russian right on October 13th sustained heavy losses. The commander of one was killed and the brigade commander was wounded. Both regiments were compelled to withdraw, abandoning their artillery, but subsequently under Colonel Vanovsky, who temporarily assumed command of the brigade, after a desperate assault regained possession of the guns with the exception of sixteen which remained in the hands of the Japanese.

"The final issue of the battle Wednesday on this flank was unsuccessful for us. On account of a night attack of the Japanese, who executed a turning movement, our troops were forced not only to abandon their positions, but again lost the guns previously recovered from the Japanese. Our forces retired to the position prepared on the Siakhe river."

"ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 14.—A dispatch from General Sakharoff, dated early this morning, says regarding the fighting of October 12th and October 13th that the Russians on the right wing defended their advanced positions and also portions of the different main position, particularly in the direction of Sialiuhedzy, until towards evening when Kuropatkin ordered them to withdraw a short distance. In spite of the fact that the Japanese attacks were chiefly directed against these troops they held the ground to which they retired.

On the left wing after a very obstinate struggle the Russians occupied the Rocky Hills, south of Bentsiapuize, and near Bensihu about eight miles north of Yental, but the arrival of large Japanese reinforcements prevented them from profiting by this success and as this body was separated from the rest of the troops Kuropatkin ordered it to retire.

The dispatch reiterates that the Russians suffered heavy losses, but no details have yet been given out.

A later dispatch from Sakahorff, sent at 6 o'clock this morning, explains more fully the operations of October 12th and 13th, from which it appears that the Russian centre was due north of the Yental mines, the right running west a short distance beyond the railroad and left sweeping southeastward toward Bensihu. The real bloody work did not begin until Wednesday, when the Japanese made a series of determined attacks on Sialiuhedzy, about seven miles north of Yental, but the positions held off their assailants. In the meantime, however, the extreme right, comparatively lightly held, was forced back, thus compelling Kuropatkin to slightly draw back his line above Yental in order to preserve its alignment. On the extreme left, after a determined resistance, the Russians succeeded in carrying the rocky heights and Hua Pass, north of Bensihu; but the arrival of Japanese reinforcements, Sakahorff says, made it impossible for the Russians to press their advantage here, and as the left was now too far advanced it also was withdrawn some distance.

Depression at St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 15, 2:30 A. M.—The great feeling of concern which exists in high circles in the Russian capital to-night by no means equals the foreboding of coming disaster pervading the general public, which is indulging in the deepest pessimism. In the absence of official news the public is being fed on the wildest rumors of defeat suffered by General Kuropatkin to-day. The fact that no word regarding the battle has been officially given out only confirms the popular fear. The explanation offered that to-day was a holiday does not suffice to allay the apprehension.

Gen. Kuropatkin's report of the result of the day's operations has reached Emperor Nicholas at TsarkoeSelo, but it had not been returned here before the war commission, which sat only until 9 30 o'clock adjourned. The Emperor himself is represented as being bitterly disappointed and spending hours with his cabinet, studying out with the help of his military aides the reports of the battle. The general staff, however, by no means despairs. Though admitting that the tide the last two days has been against General Kuropatkin, the general staff says the battle is not yet over and that in any event there is no question of a rout.

The depressing feature of the situation is that every one is willing to believe the worst.

Thus reports from Tokio and elsewhere, stating that the Japanese are advancing and the Russians falling back are accepted with faith based upon the previous Russian retreat.

Naturally many reports are current as to the Genesis of the forward movement. It is freely stated that General Kuropatkin was forced into taking the offensive by pressure from the authorities here. This has been officially denied, and as General Kuropatkin's order to advance was given over his own signature, it seems likely that he will have to bear all the responsibilility whether the situation is of his own making or not.

Friends of General Kuropatin say the present offensive movement was inspired from St. Petersburg, as was doubtless General Stakelberg's movement for the relief of Port Arthur, and that if Kuropatkin's star has set others higher than he are responsible. At the same time the supporters of General Kuropatkin argue that whatever may be the direct outcome of the past few days fighting, it is not likely to be an irretrievable disaster to the Russian army.

The Russian plainsmen have again been forced to engage in hill fighting, which is little to their liking. There have been desperate and repeated attacks upon almost inaccessible positions, which leave no question of the resolution and gallantry of the Russian forces. Guns have been captured and recaptured in fierce hand-to-hand fights, while a pitiless down pour of rain, the inevitable accompaniment of a great battle, has flooded the trenches and drenched both armies without allaying the desperate conflict.

The latest word directly from the field is the Mukden dispatch to the Associated Press, in which it is stated that fifteen thousand Russians had been wounded, which together with to-day's casualties, would make the total probably exceed the figures of Liao Yang, and make the fight rank as one of the bloodiest battles in history.

SCHOONER WENTWORTH LOST

Struck on Chatham Bar During a Raging Gale and All on Board Perished in Terrific Sea.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHATHAM, MASS., Oct. 14.—A small portion of the forward section of the hull and a slanting foremast stood as mute reminders to-night of the ocean tragedy enacted here last night, when the three-masted schooner Wentworth, of Moncton, N. B., struck the Chatham bar during a raging northerly gale and all on board perished in the terrific seas. With the exception of the loss of the steamer Portsmouth in November, 1898, the wreck of the Wentworth is the worst disaster that has occurred on the Cape Cod coast during the last decade.

Of the twelve persons who were on board the stranded vessel not one reached the shore alive, although two bodies were rescued from the surf this morning, one of them the body of a woman, believed to be the wife of the captain. With her three children she was accompanying her husband on a trip from Hillsboro, N. B., to Newark, N. J. Little could be done in an effort to aid the crew of the disabled craft as the Cape Cod life savers from two stations were unable to launch their surf boats in the tremendous seas. A shot-line was fired to the schooner which lay not much more than three hundred yards from shore. There was one answering pull and the life savers thought that they heard a voice above the roar of the surf crying: "All right;" but beyond this there was no sign of life on board the craft. Not receiving another pull on the shot-line, the life savers shot more lines to the vessel. To-day, when wreckage came ashore, it was discovered that the first line had been made fast to the wheel of the schooner and it is believed a heavy sea swept over the vessel just as the line was fastened and that all the men on deck were washed overboard. It is also believed that those who sought safety in the rigging climbed the main and mizzen masts, both of which fell early in the morning.

The Wentworth was bound from Hillsboro, N. B., to Newark, N. J., with a cargo of plaster rock. On board, so far as known were the captain, his wife and three children and a crew of seven men.

FATAL ACCIDENT

To Man and Woman Testing a Newly Invented Fire Escape.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Oct. 14.—P. M. Scannon and wife, of Minneapolis, fell from the third-story window of the Germania Life building to the stone sidewalk this afternoon. The woman was killed and Scannon was not expected to live. The woman's neck was said to have been broken. They both struck on their heads. Scannon is the inventor of a fire escape. It was during a test of apparatus that the accident occurred. He had swung down from the eighth floor of the building to the third, where his wife was awaiting him in a window. The rope which sustained them was light and when the woman's weight was added to that of her husband the stone window ledge cut the strands of the rope, letting both fall.

MR. DAVIS' TOUR OF WEST VIRGINIA.

The Red Fire of Enthusiasm Greets the Speakers at All Their Stopping Places.

MEETINGS AT PARKERSBURG.

Davis' Special Met by a Reception Committee and Marching Club—Meetings All Along the Road Were Largely Attended

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Oct. 14.—Four days of conticuous speech-making is beginning to tell on the vocal powers of Henry G. Davis, Democratic vice presidential candidate. Aside from hoarseness, however, Mr. Davis seems as fit as when he began his continuous performance tour of his own State.

"I am sure that Alton B. Parker shall be elected president. He will endeavor to have the department of commerce and labor divided and see to it that a practical labor man, a genuine and intelligent representative of labor interests, will have the place devoted to labor interests, as had been originally intended, and a man devoted to the interests of commerce at the head of the commerce department." This was David B. Hill's contribution to the campaign to-day.

The red fire of enthusiasm lit up Parkersburg to-night. Rockets, tin horns, megaphones, marching clubs, brass bands and the small boy had complete control of the town. The Davis special arrived shortly after 5 o'clock and was met at the station by a large reception committee and marching club.

Two meetings were addressed by all of the speakers of the party. The speech making continued to a late hour, and what was said met with clamorous approval. The meetings along the road to-day were largely attended. The work of the day was divided among the speakers, including Messrs. Davis, Hill, Bailey, Daniel, Whyte and McGraw.

NEW MARTINSVILLE, W. VA., Oct. 14.—Mr. Davis in asking his audiences a few questions about the Republican "full dinner pail" of four years ago, said: "You don't hear them saying a word about that pail now, do you?" He answered "No, the pail is not full and they are keeping quiet."

Mr. Davis made this reference to President Roosevelt: "You know Roosevelt went into office as an accidental president, and I hope he'll never get in again by your votes or mine."

DIVORCE QUESTION IN THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

House of Deputies Rejected the Proposed Amendment to the Canon—Not Likely That Any Change Will be Made.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BOSTON, Oct. 14.—The House of Deputies of the Episcopal General Convention, at the close of a four days' debate to-day rejected an amendment to the divorce canon which sought to prevent the remarriage of divorced persons by clergymen of the denomination. While the House of Bishops may yet act on the matter, it is certain that no change will be made by the present convention.

The present law of the church, in operation since 1859, allows the remarriage of the innocent party to a divorce granted for infidelity. At several conventions attempts have been made to repeal this law, and when a vote was taken to-day by the House of Deputies sitting as a committee of the whole, on the question of reporting the proposed amendment to the house itself, the reformers were successful, by a vote of 214 to 191, and this vote was regarded as representing the actual strength of the contending forces. The final vote, however, was taken by dioceses and orders, and where a diocese was evenly divided in sentiment, its strength was counted in the negative. The vote was by diocese: Clerical, for the amendment, 30; against, 21; divided, 10. Lay vote: for, 25; against, 24; divided, 6.

Practically the entire strength of the middle Western States, the stronghold of the High Church party, declared for the proposed reform, but the Pacific States and a number of Southern States voted against a change of the present canon.

Rev. Dr. Davenport, of Memphis, Tenn., chairman of the committee on canons, made the concluding argument in a brief address for the amendment.

The house took an adjournment until Monday.

REPUBLICANISM IN EDGECOMBE.

Spellbinders Cancel Their Engagements to Harangue "Dear Good People."

[Special Star Telegram.]

TARBORO, N. C., Oct. 14.—Mr. Chas. J. Harris, Republican candidate for governor, failed to fulfil his appointment to speak here to-day. A telephone message cancelling the engagement was received by the county chairman yesterday evening. An offer was made to supply another speaker but the situation was too apathetic and but a few were appointed. Hon. Thomas E. Watson, the presidential aspirant of the Populist party, has also cancelled his engagement to speak here, the 27th, and will remain at national headquarters in Chicago where he will make several speeches and endeavor to capture a large fraction of the Bryan and Hearst following of which he is very hopeful.

IN HONOR OF MRS. FRED D. HALE.

Ladies of First Baptist Congregation Delightfully Entertained Yesterday.

The ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church gave a delightful reception from 4 to 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the lecture room of the building in honor of Mrs. Fred D. Hale, wife of the popular and gifted pastor of the congregation. The room was charmingly decorated for the event and Mrs. Hale was delighted at the reception given by the hospitable ladies of the congregation.

Among the musical features of the reception was a solo by Mrs. C. D. Weeks; a reading by Mrs. C. O. Byerly and a duet by Mrs. F. A. Muse and Mrs. Weeks. Following the music, which was charming, indeed, dainty refreshments were served.

Russian "In Port."

"Alongoff Koborovitz, Port Arthur," was boldly writ across the register at The Orton early yesterday afternoon. The newspaper men scanned the page, caught the name and at once had visions of long, towsky whiskers, broad shoulders and a six-foot length with the greatest probability of a news item mixed up in the combination somewhere. They would glance again at the name, make a tour of the lobby and porch and return, to the clerk with an inquiry as the whereabouts of Mr. "Alongoff," who remained all day a-long-way-off from the newspaper folks. They never found him. One of them was still searching for the distinguished personage last night when some one whispered that Emmett Levy was in town and that the aforesaid gentleman with an unpronounceable name was travelling in advance of the dog and pony show enterprise that Mr. Levy launched several months ago.

Football Challenge.

The Y. M. C. A. Juniors, a strong juvenile football team captained by Frank Brittain, Jr., issues a challenge to all other teams of its class in the city, and will be glad to arrange dates for the coming season. The team is as follows: Clarence LeGrand, right end; Gus Wright, right tackle; Henry Taylor, right guard; Sam Royall, centre; Bryan Newkirk, left guard; Fred Poisson, left tackle; Ferd. Duls, left end; Frank Britain, captain and quarter back; Louis Belden, full back; Sidney McDonald, right half back; Charles Hall, left half back. Some lively games are expected. This challenge may be accepted by communicating with Frank Britain, Jr., captain, box 255, city.

Tinner Fell from Roof.

Dennis Murphy, a tinner employed by Messrs. S. L. Smith & Sons, of this city, suffered a dislocation of the shoulder and painful bruises about the body as the result of a fall from the comb of a 25-foot roof to the scaffolding at the eaves of a new house upon which he was at work for Mr. Herbert Johnson, four miles from Wilmington on the Castle Haynes road, yesterday. But for the fact that the scaffolding had not been taken away from the eaves of the house, the man would have fallen to the ground and suffered even more serious consequences. He was brough to his home in Wilmington and attended by Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy.

Great Baptist Revival.

Sunday morning Pastor Fred D. Hale will preach the first sermon in the revival meeting now beginning at the First Baptist church. There will be baptizing at the night service, a sermon being preached appropriate to the occasion. Dr. Lunsford, who is to assist in the meeting, will reach the city Monday evening and will preach his first sermon Monday night. The chorus choir will meet for practice at the church to night. The meetings next week will be at 3:30 and 8 P. M.

Mr. Grainger Vice President.

Mr. J. V. Grainger has been elected vice president of the Murchison National Bank. This is a well deserved promotion as Mr. Grainger has been cashier of the bank since its organization in 1899, and by his industry and active interest has contributed no little to its marvellous growth. The bank's deposits now amount to nearly $1,900,000 and its total assets are over $2,500,000.

Seaboard Air Line Train.

Lumberton Argus: The Argus is glad to hear so favorable reports from the new train on the Carolina Central. This train is so exceedingly valuable to this section. It seems that the train is making money for the company. The clever Captain Bowen tells us that the average number of fares on each trip is about sixty. The mail pays a portion of the expenses too. So we presume the train is a permanent institution. It must be, for it is the best thing yet."
